Whereas on an examination of the working of the several Agricultural Credit Co-operative Societies (by whatever name called) in the District, it is found that many of them, either by the inadequacy of their resources or the limits of their restricted territorial operation cannot effectively function to subserve the interests of larger sections of the rural people, to wit, to meet the credit requirements for: -

Whereas it is the policy of the State to channelise credit facilities in rural areas for the aforesaid purposes primarily through Co-operative Societies,

Whereas it is considered essential in public interest and in order to secure proper management of Co-operative Societies and also to carry out the aforesaid purposes in an effective manner, to re-organise such Co-operative Societies into broad based Agricultural Service Co-operative Societies or Farmers Service Co-operative Societies, as the case may be, by suitably amalgamating them and wherever necessary including new areas within their area of operation having regard to the broad norms specified below.—
